Hi everyone,

I'm emailing you all today to let you know that I am resigning from my position on the River District HOA board. I think we can all probably agree that this has taken a lot more of our time than we expected and although I care very much about our community and I really don't like walking away from something I committed to, I must also consider myself and my family. My life has unexpectedly changed since the election with my job getting substantially busier and I am also working on launching an online clothing store which is a dream come true.

Unfortunately, I am typically not very good at respecting my limits and I tend to take on more than I should. Between all of that and some other more personal items, I don't think it's best for me to continue on the board.

I appreciate all of the time you all are continuing to put into our community and I really enjoyed getting to know those of you I did not already know.

Thank you,

Arielle
